Household Goods Removal - FOR IMPORTS	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Packing list ➤ Copy of passport ➤ Copy of valid visa ➤ Airway bill/Bill of lading ➤ Pro forma invoice for customs purposes ➤ Valued inventory in English or Russian ➤ Power of attorney ➤ Employment confirmation ➤ Photographs of all cultural items (2) 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ The consignee should be present at the destination. ➤ The consignee must be employed by a registered company in Azerbaijan. ➤ Expatriates are permitted to import HHG and personal effects duty and tax free on a temporary basis, which is valid until the time expatriate has finished their tenure and are ready to export their HHG out of Azerbaijan. ➤ Temporary importation can be made only for the period of customer's visa validity. ➤ Customs will levy procedure charges. These procedure fees are 0.3 % of the invoice value of the shipment (+ 18 % VAT) ➤ Photographs may only include one item per photograph. Expatriates are permitted to import household goods and electrical appliances tax and duty free on a temporary import basis. ➤ All electronic/electrical appliances must be clearly marked on the packing list with serial numbers; only customs procedure fees applicable in this case at 0.3% + (VAT of 18 % on this amount) of the invoice value of the shipment. ➤ Consumables goods such as clothing, cosmetics, foodstuffs, beverages, etc. are subject to customs duties and VAT. ➤ All import duties are charged based on the CIF (Cost, Insurance, Freight) value. ➤ Azerbaijan citizens are not permitted to import household goods and personal effects on a temporary import basis and must pay full taxes and duties in the amount equal to 36% of CIF value in case duty exempt certificate is not available. ➤ Shipment of household goods and personal effects is subject to payment of a customs levy, which varies from 0.18% to 0.30% depending on the nature of goods. The cost of each declaration is USD 120.00/per main page and USD 90.00/- per additional pages.* ➤ The number of groups and declarations depends on the variety of the goods inside the shipment. For example, clothes are one separate group, kitchenware is a second group, wooden furniture is third group, plastic furniture is a fourth group, etc. ➤ Customs declaration should be issued at the customs department for each group of goods. The final number of declarations and cost is determined after completion of the customs clearance process; these charges are not included in general destination rates. *The cost of declarations is subject to change with no prior notification as same is set by customs authorities Important: A valued inventory is strictly required for customs clearance. Separate valued inventory lists should be issued for consumable items and household goods intended for temporary import. Valued inventory list for consumable items should contain a very clear description of each individual item, e.g., cotton sanitary napkins, men's cotton shirt, toothpaste etc. as such descriptions are very important in assisting local authorities to determine the import duty which differs from item to item. In order to minimize the duty on consumable items, individuals should under-declare the values on the valued inventory given to the customs authorities. Valued inventory lists are purely for customs purposes and value does not have to be the same as used for insurance purposes. However, it is strictly advised not to enclose the list used to insurance purposes along with the shipping documents. The customs duties for consumables items are charged based on CIF value; therefore, total CIF should be clearly marked on the valued inventory. Note: Request a copy of consignment instructions before dispatch of the shipment to avoid extra storage charges at airport/terminal.
