

Canada Customs Information: for Diplomats
Customs Regulations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Present B4E Form to Customs and attach packing list with declared values, electronic items should include make, model and serial number
Documents Required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Passport ✓ Work permit with letter from Embassy / Consulate. ✓ Diplomats should consult their embassy/consulate to determine what agreement that office has with the Canadian government

Canada Customs Information: for Foreign Citizens
Customs Regulations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Personal attendance during customs clearance by shipper is mandatory. ➤ An Immigrant with the intention of establishing residence for more than 12 months may import free of duty and taxes household and personal effects that were owned and used by them in their former country of residence. ➤ First declaration must be made at point of entry into Canada. Present B4E Form to Customs and attach packing list with declared values, electronic items should include make, model and serial number. ➤ When shipment arrives, a second personal declaration to customs is required at the customs point nearest final destination.
Documents Required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Passport ✓ Copy of Immigration Papers ✓ Packing List ✓ Copy of declaration made out at a port of entry. ✓ Liquor Permit if you are bringing liquor into Canada
Motor Vehicles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Vehicles less than 15 years old must comply with all Canadian safety and emissions standards. ➤ Vehicles must be made for the Canadian market. ➤ If the vehicle is eligible for importation, an import assessment, which may include duty, excise tax, and the 7% goods and services tax, will apply. ➤ There is no duty if your vehicle originated in Canada.
Pets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Pets are allowed to be imported into Canada with accompanying vet certificates.
Dutiable and Restricted Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ All liquor is subject to duty and taxes. ➤ Firearms are restricted and a firearm permit is required. ➤ Used mattresses (unless imported for personal use and owned by the client prior to arrival.
Prohibited Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Shipments will be inspected if there is food. Agriculture Canada and Canada customs does not encourage the shipment of food. ➤ Meat or by-products is prohibited

Belgium Customs Information: for Returning Citizens
Customs Regulations	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Personal attendance during customs clearance by shipper is mandatory. ➤ First declaration must be made at point of entry into Canada. Present B4E Form to Customs and attach packing list with declared values, electronic items should include make, model and serial. ➤ When shipment arrives, a second declaration to customs is required at the customs point nearest final destination.
Documents Required	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Passport ✓ Packing List ✓ Proof of residency outside of Canada for more than 1 year (rent receipts; letter from employer, etc.) ✓ Liquor Permit if you are bringing liquor into Canada
Motor Vehicles	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Vehicles less than 15 years old must comply with all Canadian safety and emissions standards. ➤ Vehicles must be made for the Canadian market. ➤ If the vehicle is eligible for importation, an import assessment, which may include duty, excise tax, and the 7% goods and services tax, will apply. ➤ There is no duty if your vehicle originated in Canada.
Pets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ Pets are allowed to be imported into Canada with accompanying vet certificates.
Dutiable / Restricted Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Returning Canadians may bring back duty free all household goods and personal effects including car, boat, provided they have been acquired and used six months prior to arrival in Canada. ➤ There is a valuation limit placed on goods of $10,000.00 per item, which also includes automobiles. Duty and taxes will be levied against any one item that exceeds that limitation. ➤ All liquor is subject to duty and taxes. ➤ Firearms are restricted and a firearm permit is required. ➤ Used mattresses (unless imported for personal use and owned by the client prior to arrival).
Prohibited Items	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Shipments will be inspected if there is food. Agriculture Canada and Canada customs does not encourage the shipment of food. ➤ Meat or by-products is prohibited.