

Indonesia (Bali)	Customs Regulations 2011
Household Goods and Personal Effects	A foreigner may import household goods and personal effects into Indonesia duty free under the following conditions: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➢ He or she has diplomatic status or holds a valid one year Indonesia residence permit called a KITAS (spouse also needs this). A work permit called IMTA is also required. ➢ His or her goods enter Indonesia within 3 months of his/her initial arrival in Indonesia. ➢ His or her good arrive from the country where he/she lived previously for one year. If the above criteria are met, only one sea and one air shipment are permitted duty free, and the shipper can only import one each of any electrical appliance duty free. A returning Indonesian national must obtain a letter from the Indonesian Embassy or Consulate at point of origin stating original arrival date abroad, the date of return to Indonesia, the reason for staying overseas, and that the shipper is bringing back a shipment of household goods to Indonesia. Duty free entry is only permitted if: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➢ He or she has completed his or her overseas study ➢ He or she was a consulate or embassy staff member overseas ➢ He or she has finished his or her overseas contractual employment Again, only one air and one sea are permitted duty free, and one each of any electrical appliance duty free. All other foreigners and returning Indonesians, who do not meet the above criteria, may import household goods and personal effects into Indonesia, but they will be subject to duty. The duty amount varies and is often subject to negotiation with the customs department. JVK will work with the shipper and his/her company to minimize any duty liability. While the shipper does not have to be physically present at the port or airport during customs clearance, we must present his/her original passport and original one year work permit (or diplomatic certificate) to the Indonesian Customs Authorities at the time of clearance. Thus, the shipper must be in Indonesia for the shipment to clear through customs. A returning Indonesian national must present both his/her current passport and his/her previously expired passport. All shipments are subject to 100% customs examination. Shipments that contain solid wood packaging material need to be fumigated or heat treated at origin. Failure to do so could entail shipment being subject to additional quarantine charges at the port of entry.
Prohibited and Restricted Goods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➢ Goods prohibited from entering Indonesia include firearms, ammunition, pornographic material, and short wave radios. ➢ Alcohol is strictly prohibited
Motor Vehicles (Autos and Motorbikes)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➢ Only a foreign diplomat may import a vehicle into Indonesia duty free. He or she must obtain a letter from the Indonesian Ministry of Foreign Affairs verifying his/her status and requesting that Indonesian Customs permit duty free import. ➢ For all other foreigners and returning Indonesian nationals, it is almost impossible to import a vehicle into Indonesia. The procedures for a non-diplomat to import a vehicle are time consuming and tedious. The duty assessed can be as high as 300% of the new purchase value of the vehicle.
Animals and Pets	Pets are currently banned from being imported into Bali. Please check with JVK for the latest information.
