

Ireland Customs Information
Prohibited and Restricted Goods	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Plants ➤ Drugs ➤ Hay ➤ Straw ➤ Peat Moss ➤ Explosives ➤ Fireworks ➤ Firearms except under licence from Irish Government
Household Goods and Personal Effects	Used household effects (including used motor cars) may be imported free of Customs duties, provided that they have been acquired by the Importer at least six months previously for substantial use outside the country and are being imported for personal use.
Documentation	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ✓ At least 4 days notice in advance is required. ✓ Completed customs papers Transfer of Residence 1076 & TOR1 form. ✓ For motorbikes and cars customs require completed VRT4 (car) VRT5 (motorbike). ✓ Packing List + total Value. ✓ Copy of rental / lease agreement or copy of sale agreement abroad. ✓ Proof of employment abroad & in Ireland. ✓ Proof client has entered into a purchase agreement or copy of rental / lease agreement here in Ireland. ✓ Copies of utility bills / bank statements / credit card statements dated over 12 months old. Also 1 of the above dated within 6 months of the mover ✓ Commercial invoices for any new goods. ▪ If you wish to declare Silverware, an additional Form CU56 should be completed.
Pets	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Before importing pets, an Import Licence should be obtained and quarantine arrangements made. This is a complicated procedure which we would be pleased to carry out on your behalf. ➤ The animal must be consigned as manifested freight to one of the approved ports of entry and moved from the Port or Airport by the Irish Transport Authority.
Plants	Plants must be accompanied by a Phytosanitary or Health Certificate issued at origin.
Alcohol	Any alcohol imported into Ireland is subjected to VAT & Duty at the current percentage rate and may incur extra import charges. VAT & Duty is determined by customs and changes from month to month. Updated 1 April 2005

Updated on 8/20/2009 3:20:01 AM