Customs Regulations

- The consignee should be present at the destination and should have a valid visa
  - The consignee should be employed by a registered company in Kyrgyzstan
  - Expatriates are allowed to import household goods up to 50 kgs with CIF value not more than 80 USD duties & tax free. If the weight and CIF value are higher, then customs tax & duties are applicable for non-diplomatic shipments
  - Importation of non-diplomatic used household goods and personal effects into Kyrgyzstan is subject to payment of 0.15% of custom fees and 0.15 USD/per kg of customs duty for air shipments and surface shipments
  - 0.15 % of custom fee is charged on C.I.F. (cost, insurance premium and freight) value
  - Kyrgyz citizens are not permitted to import household goods and personal effects on temporary import basis, thus are liable to pay full tax and duties
  - All non-diplomatic imported shipments are subject to intensive customs inspection. Therefore the customs authorities leave the right to make re-evaluation of the shipment's cost mentioned on accompanying documents. In this case all customs fees and VAT will be re-calculated based on the evaluation made by customs authorities
  - Per each group of goods the customs declaration should be issued at the Customs department. The cost of each declaration is US$50/per main page and US$15.00/per additional pages. *The number of groups and declarations respectively depends on variety of the goods inside the shipment. For example, clothes are one separate group, kitchen ware is a second separate group, wooden furniture is a third separate group and plastic furniture is a fourth separate group, etc. Please note that final number of declarations and as a result, cost for the same could be advised only after customs clearance process is completed
- *The cost of declarations is subject to change with no prior notification as the same is set by customs authorities.

Importation of Vehicles

- Vehicles and motorcycles can be imported duty and tax free on a temporary import basis. Temporary import is subject to customs duty and is 3% of V.A.T. and a 0.15% customs fee per month.
- Temporary imported vehicles and motorcycles must be exported out of Kyrgyzstan at the end of expatriate's tenure.
- Sale of temporary imported vehicles and motorcycles is not permitted until full customs duties and V.A.T. has been paid. Permanent import of vehicles and motorcycles is subject to tax and duties as per customs tariff.
