Peru — Customs Information

Documents Required	✓ Passport (original) ✓ Detailed inventory (avoid PBO items) ✓ Foreigners need a legalized copy of a Work Contract presented to the Ministry of Labor
Customs Regulations	➢ CUSTOMER'S PRESENCE IN PERU IS REQUIRED FOR CUSTOMS CLEARANCE. ➢ Household goods and personal effects dutiable (The average rate for duty and tax is 14%). ➢ Household goods previously exported from Peru may be imported duty-free with supporting documents (Inventory, Export Policy, etc.) stamped by Peruvian Customs. ➢ Shipment must arrive before customers arrival or 120 days before customers arrival. ➢ Customs will allow the importation of no more than one (1) electrical appliance of same kind on a 20% import duty basis. Additional similar electrical appliances will be charged at the rate of 33%.
Motor Vehicles	▪ Import duties and excise tax levied on all used cars, but the car cannot exceed five years of antiquity ▪ Autos not belonging to diplomats require an inspection before Customs clearance can be completed ▪ Foreign Peruvian diplomats duty free Documents required: ✓ Original commercial invoice - fully detailed (original) ✓ Proof of ownership ✓ Title ✓ Certificate of inspection at origin issued by any international surveillance company such as SGS, SSI, Bureau Veritas
Pets	Documents required: ✓ Vaccination and Rabies vaccination Certificate ✓ Health Certificate
Prohibited Items	➢ Firearms (maximum caliber .38) and telecommunication equipment require a special license prior to arrival of goods ➢ Firearms also require proof of ownership and a previous license must be obtained from the Ministry of Interior (no automatic arms are allowed) Subject to confiscation if requirements are not met ➢ Narcotics and drugs ➢ Pornographic material ➢ Explosives ➢ Telecommunications equipment